IMMIGRANT ANCESTORS

IMMIGRANT ANCESTORS

Following is a list of the Immigrant Ancestors, with biographical data, whose names have appeared so often in the published lineage records of this work that frequent repetition of the identical data would be burdensome and superfluous. Hence, where the following names appear in the lineage records, the cross-reference (qv) is employed to refer the reader to this particular section of this volume where all the authentic data available, pertaining to these names, may be found.

It should be understood, however, that this is not a list of all the Immigrant Ancestors mentioned in the lineage records in this work. The largest number by far do not appear in this list because their names have occurred in the lineage records only once, or only occasionally, and the data pertaining to them will be found in those records.

The list was begun in Volume I of this work with about 1,000 names; it was increased to over 1,200 in Volume II, and in this Volume includes about 1,700 names.

While for the most part this list was compiled from trustworthy sources of available genealogical data, nevertheless a large portion of the data were derived from unpublished but authenticated records and appear herewith in print for the first time. Because it embraces all the early settlements in America it is believed to be the best general list of early Immigrant Ancestors ever compiled for a single volume.

ALPHABETICAL INDEX

ALPHABETICAL INDEX OF NAMES IN VOL. III

Since the "heart" of any genealogical work is its alphabetical index of names, and since one of the chief purposes of this work is to index America genealogically, the following alphabetical index of names in this volume refers also to some of the surnames listed in Volumes I and II of this work.

Names in bold face type indicate the subjects of preceding records, and numbers in bold face type indicate the page upon which the record appears.

Every man mentioned in the lineages in the preceding pages is listed in this index; but his wife's name has been omitted from the index because its inclusion would more than double the number of names without any appreciable advantage. It is only in rare instances that a genealogical investigator does not know the name of the father or husband of the woman whose name he is seeking, and the names of the father and husband are listed in the index when known.

However, women who are the subjects of the lineage records are listed in the index in bold face type under their maiden names or, if married, under their married names. The husbands and fathers of these women are also listed in proper alphabetical order.

The names of unmarried children (or not recorded as married) of present generations have been omitted from the index for the reason that the father's name is the only name of genealogical importance in present generations. But the names of children of present generations are listed in the index, and in bold face type, when they themselves are the subjects of records, and also to show intermarriages.

The bold face type numbers following the names of immigrant ancestors in the index, refer to the pages upon which their biographical records appear (pages 645-692); other page numbers refer to lineage records.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

THE ABRIDGED COMPENDIUM OF AMERICAN GENEALOGY

The Standard Genealogical Encyclopedia of THE FIRST FAMILIES OF AMERICA

Volume I, published 1924, contains over 5,000 records and upward of 10,000 lineages, comprising 1,148 pages. Price: $22.00, post paid.

Volume II, published 1926, contains over 1,600 records and upward of 5,000 lineages, comprising 628 pages. Price: $22.00, post paid.

Volume III, published 1928, contains over 2,000 records and upward of 6,000 lineages, comprising 810 pages. Price: $22.00, post paid.

Volume IV, in course of preparation (1929), will be issued early in 1930. Subsequent volumes to be issued biennially.

The lineage records for this work are selected for their genealogical value alone, and there is no charge for including them in this work. Of course, it is hoped that the volume in which a lineage record does appear is of sufficient interest to the family to warrant a subscription, but a subscription is not pre-requisite to inclusion.

The editors welcome suggestions of names for inclusion in this work and they will have careful consideration, but they reserve the right to accept for publication or reject any data submitted to them at their discretion.

Illustrations: Illustrations had no place in the original plan and scope of this work but this feature was granted in response to numerous requests for the opportunity to preserve in print for posterity, portraits, armorial bearings, and other illustrations of family and genealogical interest, as well as the data.

However, the insertion of illustrations is optional and must be regarded as features extraneous to the publication of purely genealogical data, and of necessity must be charged for, but the tariff barely covers the cost of plates, the space occupied in the work, and the labor incidental to their publication.

When the coat of arms is not known but is desired for inclusion in this work in conjunction with a record, search for it will be undertaken by the heraldry department without charge other than the cost of inclusion as stated above.

THE INSTITUTE OF AMERICAN GENEALOGY

The National Clearing House for Genealogical Information

(NOT FOR PROFIT)

The Institute of American Genealogy is designed to be the National Clearing House for Genealogical Information.

It was founded on the principal that knowledge of one's ancestry is a birthright and that genealogical data should be made accessible to all.

It has only one purpose, and that is to render complete genealogical service, to afford every American all available facilities for finding lineages with the least expenditure of time and money.

It is for those who know little about their ancestors and wish to trace them, and for those who know much about their ancestry and wish to find more.

It is to aid in bringing lineages down to date and then to keep them up to date by adding each succeeding generation.

It is for those who know nothing about their ancestors but wish to begin a record of the present generations upon which to build an American lineage for posterity.

It is not expected to be a commercial, money-making enterprise, but it is expected to be self-sustaining through revenue derived from membership fees and for services rendered.

It was organized by a group of men and women that recognize the real need for such an institution, and who, as a patriotic duty, are giving of their time and means without expectation of reward other than the knowledge of a public duty performed.

Asking nothing for themselves they feel no constraint in bespeaking the support, to the extent of membership in The Institute, of those Americans interested in writing and preserving for posterity the records of American Genealogy.

The Institute aims to co-ordinate the genealogical research work of the various hereditary, genealogical, family, and historical associations which are seriously endeavoring to render service, by affording each one the facilities of its Master Indexes, and otherwise in the same manner that a parent organization co-ordinates and co-operates with its state societies and local chapters.

It will afford its members, resident anywhere, practically the facilities of all genealogical societies and libraries in the country.

Its location near the center of population enables it to serve with greater despatch, and with greater freedom from individual and organized influences, than would be possible in what might appear to be more logical locations.

It has immediate access to all the facilities of one of the greatest genealogical libraries in America as well as the most extensive private genealogical files and alphabetical and lineage indexes extant, so that it is already prepared to render a more complete service than would be possible elsewhere.
